Whatever will be, will be

Leon King

"Do you believe whatever will be, will be?" asked the writer's aunt. "I really don't know," came the answer from the young lad who was listening intently. This question, asked so many years ago, spawned many questions in the mind of that little boy. He was a new believer and though he had read much of the Bible again and again, he did not know the answer to this question. The question was a bother to him—as it is to so many.

Years later, the writer, then grown up, married, and father of four little ones sat in the pew listening to his pastor preach the word of God. The preacher said, "Some people believe whatever will be, will be, whether it happens or not." That statement has never left the mind of that young father. The preacher's statement seemed to add fuel to the already burning fire inside. "Do I believe whatever will be, will be?" the question came again and again.

More than forty years down the road from the day he listened to the pastor's sermon, the writer has concluded, without any question—whatever will be, will be. Let's consider some very pointed and bothersome questions and allow the Holy Scriptures to answer them.

Q. Has God purposed or decreed all things that have come to pass and all things that ever will come to pass?

Answer: "But our God is in the heavens: He hath done whatsoever He hath pleased" (Ps 115:3).

"Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did He in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places" (Ps 135:6).

"That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside Me. I am the LORD, and there is none else. I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things" (Isa 45:6-7).

Whatever will be, will be

"Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like Me, Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure" (Isa 46:9-10).

"Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not? Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good?" (La 3:37-38).

"Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?" (Am 3:6).

"The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against His Christ . . . For to do whatsoever Thy hand and Thy counsel determined before to be done" (Ac 4:26,28).

"In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of Him who worketh all things after the counsel of His own will" (Eph 1:11).

"For of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things: to Whom be glory for ever. Amen" (Ro 11:36).

Q. Is God's eternal purpose or plan ever thwarted or defeated by any of His creatures? Does God ever fail to achieve anything He determines to do?

Answer. "Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is Thine; Thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as Head above all. Both riches and honour come of Thee, and Thou reignest over all; and in Thine hand is power and might; and in Thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all" (1Ch 29:11-12).

"But He is in one mind, and who can turn Him? and what His soul desireth, even that He doeth" (Job 23:13).

"Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him. For He spake, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast. The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: He maketh the devices of the people of none effect. The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of His heart to all generations" (Ps 33:8-11).

"The LORD hath prepared His throne in the heavens; and His kingdom ruleth over all" (Ps 103:19).

"A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps" (Pr 16:9).

"There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand" (Pr 19:21).

"Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?" (Pr 20:24).

"The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: He turneth it whithersoever He will" (Pr 21:1).

"The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand" . . . "For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and His hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?" (Isa 14:24,27).

"So shall My word be that goeth forth out of My mouth: it shall not return unto Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it" (Isa 55:11).

"And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and He doeth according to His will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay His hand, or say unto Him, What doest Thou?" (Da 4:35).

"Ah Lord GOD! behold, Thou hast made the heaven and the earth by Thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for Thee" (Jer 32:17).

"For with God nothing shall be impossible" (Lu 1:37).

"Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth He yet find fault? For who hath resisted His will?" (Ro 9:19).

Q. Does the natural man have any desire to seek God or any ability to understand the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ?

Answer. "There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God" (Ro 3:11).

"Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God" (Joh 3:3).

"But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned" (1Co 2:14).

"But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (2Co 4:3-4).

What say you, dear reader? Do you believe that the great sovereign God has purposed all things—and that He shall, positively bring his purpose to pass? Is he doing that very thing in our modern world with all its troubles? Surely, He is doing His good pleasure in spite of what we see.

Shall we read some more of these bothersome questions and answers?

How about it, dear reader? Are you convinced that the great Sovereign God does his pleasure with all men and all things? This is the God of the Bible—yet so many seem to have their own drawn up idea about the nature and doings of God. Many have created a god in their own image.

The absolute sovereignty of God means that God, as the Supreme Being, has an all-inclusive, eternal plan or purpose, that everything that happens in time is in fulfillment of this eternal plan, and that this eternal plan will be completely fulfilled without fail. It means that God has predetermined all things, that all things happen for a purpose, and that there is no such thing as chance, happenstance, fate, or luck. It means that God is accountable or answerable to and under the control of no one, and that everyone is accountable to Him and under His control. It means that God always does what He pleases, to whom He pleases, when He pleases, where He pleases, how He pleases. The absolute sovereignty of God is taught throughout the Holy Bible.

After having read these questions and scriptural answers, dear reader, there must be a lot of bothersome questions in your mind. None of these questions and answers are original with me—but have been asked through the centuries. Let the Holy Scriptures speak for themselves. We do not have to fear to believe the word of God—for this is our God-given way of understanding more of him and his workings. Believe and rejoice. "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." (Revelation 4:11)
